The signing by the Seller of any of the Buyer's documentation shall not imply any modification of these conditions.
(2) The Buyer acknowledges that outside these conditions and any variation made in accordance with them, it does not rely on and the Seller shall not be bound by any statements, promises, opinions, or representations made by or on behalf of the Seller.

DELIVERY

- (1) Sales 'to arrive' shall be subject to shipment and safe arrival. The Buyer shall accept deliveries of the Goods when offered and shall provide such instructions as necessary to carry out such delivery. Any costs incurred as a result of such action or delay shall be for the Buyer's account.

(2) If any monies are not paid on the due date the Seller reserves the right to demand full or partial payment before proceeding further with the contract.
(3) If the Buyer defaults in payment, the Seller may in addition to any other rights hereunder delay delivery or terminate the contract and may also cancel any other contracts with the Buyer without incurring any liability to the Buyer in respect of such delay, termination or cancellation.
(4) The Buyer shall not be entitled by reason of any dispute with the Seller under any contract to withhold payment of any amount due to the Seller or to set-off against any such amount or payment any cross-claim of any kind.
(5) If the Buyer defaults in payment under these conditions or in respect of any other debt or obligation due to the Seller or if the Buyer makes or offers to make any voluntary arrangement or composition with its creditors or becomes subject to an administration order or (being a company) enters into liquidation (otherwise than for the purposes of amalgamation or reconstruction) or a Receiver is appointed to any of the undertakings, property or assets of the Buyer or the Buyer ceases or threatens to cease carrying on business or (being an individual or firm) becomes bankrupt or (being a natural person) dies, or if anything similar or analogous to any of the foregoing shall occur under the laws of any jurisdiction in which the Buyer is incorporated, resident, or carries on business, or if for any other reason in the Seller's opinion the creditworthiness of the Buyer appears to become unsatisfactory then the purchase price of all the Goods invoiced or dispatched by the Seller shall become due and payable forthwith and the Seller shall be entitled to suspend or cancel further deliveries on any contracts or cancel any contracts with the Buyer without any liability to the Buyer and without prejudice to any other rights of the Seller.
(6) Any additional costs or loss of profit incurred by the Seller as a result of delay, suspension or cancellation pursuant to this clause 4 shall be for the account of the Buyer.

VAT AND INTEREST

- (1) All prices quoted are exclusive of Value Added Tax.
(2) If payment is not made by the due date the Seller shall be entitled to recover from the Buyer interest on any outstanding balance at the rate of 2 1/2 % per 30 day period or at the rate currently in force as shown on the Sale Note, whichever is the greater.
(3) In the case of any other default by the Buyer damages shall include but shall not be restricted to interest at the aforesaid rate on all costs incurred by the Seller in connection with the contract including the value of the Goods at the contract price until such default is remedied by the Buyer or the Goods are disposed of by the Seller.

RETENTION OF TITLE

- (1) Property in the Goods or any part thereof shall not pass to the Buyer until the Buyer has paid to the Seller the entire price thereof, and until such price is paid the Buyer holds the Goods as the bailee or trustee of the Seller and the following provisions of this clause shall apply.
(2) The Buyer shall not pledge or allow any lien or charge to be created over the Goods or any document of title thereto and shall not deal with or dispose of the Goods nor any interest therein and shall not process the Goods nor use them in any manufacturing operation.
(3) In the event of default in payment or other event described in clause 4(5) hereof the Buyer hereby authorises the Seller at any time to enter onto the Buyer's premises and remove the Goods and the Buyer shall keep the Goods at all times separate and identifiable for such purpose.
(4) Recovery of the Goods shall not of itself discharge the Buyer's liabilities in respect of the Goods but shall be without prejudice to the Seller's other rights under the contract.
(5) The Goods shall be at the risk of the Buyer from the time they are ready for collection by or are delivered to it, but notwithstanding any other provisions of these conditions the Seller may at its sole discretion and at any time by notice in writing to the Buyer transfer the property in the Goods to it.

- (2) Any claim by the Buyer will only be investigated, in accordance with trade practice, once the entire price of the Goods has been paid to the Seller. The Seller shall be under no liability whatsoever if bulk is broken beyond the extent necessary to make a reasonable examination of the Goods or, where the Goods include plywood or particle board, if the marked battens or packages are not produced with the Goods for inspection by the Seller. In all cases it shall be the responsibility of the Buyer to establish identification of goods claimed to have been supplied by the Seller.

- If and to the extent that the Supplier validly excludes, restricts or limits its liability to the Seller in respect of the Goods or of any loss or damage arising in connection therewith, the liability of the Seller to the Buyer in respect of the Goods or of any loss or damage arising in connection therewith shall be correspondingly excluded, restricted or limited. The Seller will, on request, supply the Buyer with details of any such exclusion, restriction or limitation.

- (1) The Seller warrants that it has the right to sell the Goods and that so far as the Seller is aware the Goods are free from any charge or encumbrance unknown to the Buyer and that the Goods comply with the written terms and descriptions contained in the contract.

PROCESSING

- Any processing of, to or with the Goods carried out at the request of the Buyer by a third party shall be carried out at the expense and at the risk of the Buyer on the standard terms and conditions of the third party.

CURRENCY

- (1) If contracts are made in a currency other than Sterling, or a fluctuating price subject to variations in exchange rates, then, unless previously notified by the Buyer as below, the Seller shall purchase currency on the Buyer's behalf and shall invoice the Buyer in Sterling at the rate ruling at the date of the Seller's invoice.
(2) The Buyer may in writing either notify the Seller that the Buyer will pay for the Goods in foreign currency or request the Seller to enter into a forward contract to purchase currency on the Buyer's behalf to the approximate value of the contract for the Goods, and the Seller will invoice the Buyer in respect of such currency at the rate obtained.
